

The user selects a route (aka walk of interest) in the route network, and places a span equipment (i.e. conduit or cable) in there.

